

SUNRISE IN TRANSYLVANIA

Sunrise in Transylvania..... Sunset in Galway Bay
Midday sun in Andalusia..... Midnight sun in Norway
Sun playing on a village green..... Sunglasses reflecting the scene
Sun beaming on the alpine snows..... Sunflowers in fields in rows Sunburn in faraway places..... Sun in the smile of a girl.

London sweats in a heatwave.... Guardsmen faint on parade
French cafes relax in the haze..... Sleepy dogs pant in the shade Sun streams across the plains to Moscow, turning showers into rainbows
Sun umbrellas in a pina colada..... Sun shimmers on the autostrada
Sun on Italian hillsides..... Sweetening the fruit on the vine.

Daffodils dying in springtime..... Vultures doing the same Glaciers melting in sunshine..... Forests melting in flame
Ozone split in a thousand places..... Sun blocker on a million faces
Rivers dry and disappear..... Failed harvest for another year Holy men fighting for water..... Atheists praying for rain.

A series of images of the sun. First done in Act One's "Euro Revue".
